

Painting a house gives it a new and inviting appearance. Any paint is better than none, but some paints are far better than others. A paint that looks well and will wear well, and is cheap on that account, our stock presents first choices in all desirable colors. You'll save your money by giving your house a double coat of our paint. We supply all paints mixed and ready for use at the lowest prices and carry a full line of painters' supplies.

NEW MEXICO VOLUNTEERS.

Company A Gone to Whipple Barracks—Company B at Las Vegas Ready for Mustering—Company C at Santa Fe Progressing—Military Notes.

Company C now has 53 enlisted men.
Walter E. Reynolds, of Raton will be appointed 1st lieutenant of Company B at Las Vegas.

Sergeant Leahy is a good drill master to be sure, and is putting some vim and energy in the boys.

Lieutenant Smith, assistant surgeon, is a strict examining officer and means business from the word go.

Captain William Strover looks after the men so far enlisted and has a sharp eye out for their welfare and comfort.

The volunteers examined and accepted for service in Company C, 1st battalion U. S. volunteer infantry, yesterday afternoon were: Wm. P. Campbell, Jose Cienfuegos, Thomas Smith, Charles Brown.

The departure of Company A from Albuquerque to Fort Whipple last night was attended by great enthusiasm.
Fully 5,000 people saw the boys off.
Captain Mitchell states that Albuquerque could furnish another company without difficulty.

Ernest A. Barker, a recruit from Las Vegas, who enlisted in the "Rough Riders," has been confined at St. Vincent's hospital with an attack of illness for more than a week, but is now fully recovered and expects to leave with Company C, infantry.

T. P. Gable this morning wired to friends in Trinidad for recruits, and 11 men will arrive on this evening's train, who are anxious to enlist in Company C, of the territorial volunteer infantry.
Among them is Silas Bent, a grandson of ex-Governor Bent, of New Mexico.

A late dispatch from Captain Reid reports that he secured the full quota of men for Company B, Governor Otero, Major Mitchell, Lieutenant Moore and Surgeon Smith leave this evening for Las Vegas to muster in Captain Reid's company. So soon as mustered the company goes to Whipple barracks.

It is reported that Thomas P. Gable came up from Chihuahua, Mexico, as an applicant for a lieutenant's commission in the infantry battalion.

CITY BREVITIES.

Special train on the D. & R. G. railroad on July 13 for the Chama celebration. Fare to Chama and return to Santa Fe, $1.25.

Owing to a scarcity of stone Contractor Antonio Windsor was compelled to stop work on the Indian school improvements for a few days.

The painters and finishers are now at work on the sanitation annex and the building is expected to be ready for occupancy in a few days.

During the forepart of this week 45 men from this city went south to work on the Alamogordo and Sacramento Mountain railroad in Dona Ana county.

Those who propose to attend the celebration at Chama on July 13 next, should take their lunch baskets along.
The celebration will be an unique and interesting affair.

Death of Captain Farnace.

Captain James Farnace, 13th infantry, who was stationed here for about five years in the 80's was severely wounded in last Saturday's fighting at Santiago, having both legs shot off, and has since died. Captain Farnace was one of the best and bravest officers in the army and his many friends regret his untimely, though heroic, death very much. He was in command of the regiment when he fell, the colonel, lieutenant colonel and major having been wounded and the command then involuntarily upon him as senior captain present.

THE NEW INDIAN AGENT.

N. O. Walpole Relieved Captain C. L. Cooper of the Charge of the Pueblo and Jicarilla Agency—Personal Sketch.

Mr. N. C. Walpole, the new agent for the Pueblo and Jicarilla Apache Indians, arrived in Santa Fe last evening from Pueblo, and this morning took charge of the Indian agency.

Mr. Walpole was born in Roseville, O., in 1858, and received his education in the public schools of his native town and the Zanesville college. In 1885, arriving in Pueblo on August 3, of that year. In that city he engaged in the investment and banking business, and still retains business interests there.
His family consists of a wife and baby.
It is not his present intention to make Santa Fe his residence.

Personally, Mr. Walpole is a tall, slender man, very pleasant in manner and address, and thoroughly impresses those with whom he comes in contact with the idea that he is a man of affairs. That he will make many new friends in Santa Fe is a foregone conclusion.

tember 27, 1898.

Before adjourning, the court of private land claims transacted the following business:

In case No. 181, the Santa Cruz grant in Bernillo county, made before 1890, and claimed by Tomas C. de Baca et al., was rejected and petition dismissed.

A motion for a rehearing in case No.
367, was filed by United States Attorney Reynolds, on behalf of the government.
In this case the court approved the Santa Rosa de Cubero grant, in Bernillo county, for something like 10-000 acres. Claimants, Valentin Cavesa de Baca et al.

In case No. 137, Judge Laughlin, representing the claimants, Antonio Griego et al., filed a motion for a rehearing.
This case involves the legality of El Embudo grant of 25,000 acres in Rio Arriba county, which was rejected by the court the past term.

In the Sanguinilla grant, case No.
170, Judge Laughlin, representing the claimants, Alexander Grizelachowski et al., filed motion for a rehearing. This grant, under which 20,000 acres in San Miguel county were claimed, was rejected at the former hearing.

In case No. 137, the Santa Tomas de Yuribide Colony grant of two leagues in Dona Ana county, claimed by Rafaela C. de Barcia et al., testimony was completed and the case submitted. Judge Newcomb for the claimants.

In case No. 168, the Santa Teresa grant of 9,681 acres in Dona Ana county, claimed by M. E. Randall et al., testimony of several witnesses was taken and the case continued until next term.
Catron & Gortner for claimants.

The court then adjourned for the term, and the clerk directed to advertise the next term, as provided by law, to begin on September 27, 1898.
